BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP, Mich. -- Former Wofford golfer William McGirt recorded the only hole-in-one in the U.S. Amateur Championship's first two days when he aced the South Course's 168-yard par-3 13th hole with a 7-iron.

The feat contributed to an 18-hole total of 76 on his second round; however, his two-round total of 151 missed the cutoff to qualify him to continue play at the event.

McGirt, who graduated in 2001, was a four-year standout with the Terriers. He was the Southern Conference individual champion in his senior season.

The Wofford College men's golf team is in 10th place after the opening two rounds of The International Collegiate at St. Andrews Bay in Scotland.

The Terriers have shot a 314-305--619 to trail co-leaders Wake Forest (286-290--576) and North Carolina (294-282--576). Fellow SoCon member Georgia Southern, a 2002 participant in the NCAA Tournament, is five shots ahead of the Terriers in ninth place at 309-305--614. Other United States institutions competing include Texas A&M and Texas Tech.

Daniel Sloan is the top Wofford performer. He is tied for 26th individually after carding a 76-76--152. Jon Stephenson is tied for 37th at 80-75--155. Daniel Felder is tied for 41st at 80-76-156 while Colin Murray is tied for 45th at 78-79--157. Trae Ely is tied for 50th place after an 81-78--159.

Terriers Place Fifth in Scotland September 9, 2002

ST. ANDREWS BAY, SCOTLAND -- The Wofford College men's golf team finished fifth among NCAA squads at the International Collegiate at St. Andrews Bay in Scotland.

The Terriers shot an outstanding third-round score of 286 to boost themselves past fellow SoCon member and 2002 NCAA Championship participant Georgia Southern. The third round for Wofford was lower than that of any other participating team but Wake Forest.

Overall, Jon Stephenson came in with the low score of the tournament for the Terriers. He tied for 14th overall with a 80-75-72--227 (+11). Daniel Felder was close behind with a 80-76-72--228.

The tournament was the first overseas competition for Wofford, and was held at the most historic club in the world.

"It's a trip of a lifetime, really, to go play at the birthplace of golf and compete internationally," said Assistant Coach Tim Dunlavey. "To play this kind of tournament is a great recruiting tool and a big step for the program, playing against some of the biggest programs in the country."

Terriers Capture Second at River Landing Intercollegiate Oct. 16, 2002

WALLACE, N.C. -- The Wofford men's golf team finished in second place at the River Landing Intercollegiate on Monday and Tuesday. Senior Daniel Felder turned in another strong performance, finishing fifth overall with a consistent 72-71-72--215 total to lead the Terriers. Sophomore Daniel Sloan tied for ninth overall, while notching a Wofford-low of 69 in the opening round.

The second-place finish was the Terriers' best since winning the Davidson Invitational in November of 2000.

Host UNC Wilmington took top honors in the competition, with a low three-round score of 855 on the par 72 course. Old Dominion, Elon, and Charleston Southern rounded out the top five. Davidson, the only other Southern Conference team participating, finished 14th.

Terriers to Host 16th Annual Wofford Invitational
April 8, 2003

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- The Terrier men's golf team will host the 16th annual Wofford Invitational meet this Friday and Saturday at the Carolina Country Club.

This year's field includes past Wofford Invitational champion Maryland, who took home the top honors in 2000. Southern Conference squads competing this year include host Wofford, Davidson, Furman, and UNC Greensboro. Central Florida, Charlotte, East Carolina, UNC Wilmington, Elon, and Old Dominion will round out the field.

Among the top individuals participating this weekend will be Old Dominion's Geoffrey Harris, who is currently ranked 58th nationally in the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index, and Chris Piercy, who finished second in last year's Wofford Invitational field. Others who bring in high expectations will be Wofford's low stroke leader Jon Stephenson, as well as East Carolina's Jonathan Hill and UNC Wilmington's Derek Brown and Tony DiBitetto, who are ranked in the Top 150 by Golfweek/Sagarin.

Play will begin with 36 holes on Friday, and will conclude with 18 holes of play on Saturday. Full results will be available on the Wofford website each evening at <http://www.wofford.edu/athletics>.

Felder and Stephenson Named Academic All-America
June 2, 2003

The Golf Coaches Association of America has named Wofford golfers Jon Stephenson and Daniel Felder to the Cleveland Golf Academic All-America team.

Both Felder and Stephenson were TIAA-CREF Academic All-SoCon picks for the 2002-03 season. Both also are among the team's leaders in tournament performance.

Stephenson held the team's low stroke average for most of the 2002-03 season. He had two Top 10 and six Top 20 finishes in his 10 tournaments. Stephenson was also a 2002 All-Southern Conference selection and a member of the Wofford Captain's Council.

Felder's season was highlighted by a fifth-place finish at the River Landing Intercollegiate, when he finished with a one-under-par 215. He also shot a low round of 69 while finishing 25th at the UCF/Rio Pinar Intercollegiate.
